

Holy Communion

The Great Thanksgiving

Unison-Voice Eucharistic Liturgy – A

Adapted From The United Methodist Word and Table Rituals

The Lord be with you

And also with you.

Life up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth.

You shared with us your spiritual image, gave us the breath of your holy life, and placed us in the garden of your universe to care for and live in it. But we failed your calling, turned our backs upon your presence, and sought after our own understandings. We denied your will, that we might live in peace with each other, and instead fought to establish our dominance over our fellow human beings, even going so far as to deny the presence of your image within each other.

Empower us to turn our backs upon this life of sin, most gracious God, and further grant that we will reach out to our sisters and brothers in the Body of Christ as we join together with your children, in all generations and in glory everlasting, to sing the angelic hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Holy and Gracious Father:

You sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to share our human condition, live as one of us, and express your love to all by teaching, preaching, healing, leading, guiding, dying and rising for us. We thank you for coming to be among us, for sharing with us the heart of your transforming love and acceptance, and for giving us your amazing presence through the power of your Holy Spirit. We have not been left alone, to seek after your will in darkness, but have been blessed with the light of the scriptures, the traditions and history of the church universal, our experience of your sanctifying grace, and minds capable of reasoning faith. And, so, having heard your word proclaimed and offered our prayers as your people, now we gather at this your table to be re-united to your son and with each other, sharing the bread of heaven and being fed with your Holy, Mysterious Real Presence.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, Jesus our Rabbi took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." Likewise, when the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died
Christ is risen
Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood. By your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at his heavenly banquet.

Through your Son Jesus Christ, with your Holy Spirit in your Holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. Amen!

Lord's Prayer

And now, as our savior Christ has taught us, let us pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Because there is one loaf we, though we are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. The bread which we break, it is a means of sharing in the body of Christ.

And the cup over which we give thanks, it is a means of sharing in the outpoured blood of Christ.
